All -

Thank you for all of your comments - I think the document is much improved with your input. I made a few other changes (moving information around, for the most part) so it was more logical for the circumstances on the ground today.

Please take one last look for factual and consistency issues. I do need feedback very soon to make the noon deadline.

2 copies attached - one redline/strikeout so you can see the changes and one with all changes accepted ("clean copy") so you can actually read it.

Thank you!
Jennie
